

Welcome to Abingdon 12

Welcome to Abingdon 12, a home design shop, gallery, and exclusive New York source for Nancy Sharon Collins custom stationery.

Eclectic, unexpected, unique, these are some of the terms visitors use to describe this West Village treasure tucked into a pre-Civil War townhouse on Hudson Street just off Abingdon Square. The constantly changing inventory of furnishings, art objects and accessories, ranges from vintage to contemporary, industrial to elegant, mid-century modern to primitive, masculine to feminine. "It is owner Paul Caddell's incomparable eye that creates this extraordinary blend of items that has been exciting regulars and first time visitors alike for almost a decade."
