A Pageant of Luminous Follies

Paul Caddell presents an exhibition of experimental lighting works by artist Rodger Stevens. Born of unconventional materials and methods, these novel pieces exist somewhere between sculpture and lighting.

Rodger Stevens was born in Brooklyn, New York, and studied at the Parsons School of Design (NYC) and the School of Visual Arts (NYC). His sculptures, installations, and drawings have been exhibited in galleries and museums in New York, California, Paris and elsewhere since 1993.
